

Saginaw Service Weekend

Halbert Center for Missions and Global Service

The Halbert Center for Missions and Global Service took a group of ACU students to the Baan Saginaw Church near Fort Worth in January. This church was started by Christians from Southeast Asia and normally worships in the Thai/Lao language. We were joined by students from Texas A&M, Paul Quinn College, North Texas State University and University of Texas Arlington for three days of wonderful service, fellowship, worship and food.

For more information regarding missions at ACU, go to our website:
<https://www.acu.edu/community/offices/resources/him/about/about-the-center.html>